
New website

Posted by Shikibee - 2007/12/02 01:22

Welcome to the new Odonto website. All guild members should register for an account and log in to view guild only forums.

Since we are a relatively large guild, I recommend that people include their guild character's name, class, and professions in their signature. You can set your signature in the My Profile section of the forums.

Forum rules are the same as Guild Chat Rules. Be courteous and friendly. Treat other people with respect.

Have fun B)

Just wanted to say that the website looks great. Hopefully a good number of people will use it. Keep up the good work.

See you in-game,
Kucha.
